

HIGHLAND.

May 23, 1910.

Mrs. William Green has been visiting her daughter the past two weeks at her home in Cleveland.

C. C. Woods, who has been teaching the past year at Piketon, returned home on Friday for the summer vacation.

Homer Jones and little daughter, Agnes, of Columbus, have been the guests of Joseph Hoskins and family the past few days.

Mrs. James Adams and daughter, Miss Edna, were in Hillsboro on Saturday.

Miss Bessie Slaughter, of Colorado Springs, who has been visiting relatives near here the past few weeks, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Terry this week.

Mrs. Charles Stowe was visiting her husband at the hospital in Cincinnati a couple of days last week and found him doing very well considering the serious nature of the operation he has undergone.

James Evans and wife, of Petersburg, were guests of the latter's parents, Joseph Winegar and wife, Sunday.

F. S. Woodmansee and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday with their son, Glenn, at Washington C. H.

Cyrus Thornburg and wife and daughter, of Careytown, spent Sunday with C. A. Woodmansee and family.

Earl Evans and Ves Smith, of Hillsboro, were guests of James Evans and family Saturday night and Sunday.

P. F. Ladds and wife were guests of Richard Fairley and wife, of Hillsboro Wednesday.

William Head, who has been teaching in Reusever, Va., the past winter, returned home last week.

Mesdames Roscoe McPherson and Walter Hoskins were visiting friends at Chillicothe Friday.

Mrs. Clay Hixson was the guest of Dayton friends the first of the week.

Mrs. William Roberts and Miss Mary Hixson were visitors in Washington C. H. Saturday.

Miss Blanche Woodmansee, of Greenfield, was a visitor over Sunday with the families of her uncles, George and Joseph Hoskins.

Decoration Day will be appropriately observed here. Hon. C. L. Doster, of Greenfield, will deliver the address. Music will be furnished by the Leesburg band. Everyone having flowers is requested to bring them to the hall in the forenoon so that they may be arranged for distribution. The Memorial sermon will be delivered by Rev. L. A. Washburn at 10:30 on Sunday morning at the M. E. Church.

Quite a number of our people were able to see the comet the past two or three evening.

The public schools here closed Friday. There being no graduating class this year and no special program was rendered.

Mrs. Mary A. Betterton has been a visitor with friends at Farmer's Station the past few days.

DANVILLE.

May 24, 1910.

Misses Anna and Laura Stroupp spent Sunday with relatives at Dodsonville.

Born to Theodore McLaughlin and wife, on May 22, a daughter.

D. C. Dehass and wife, of East Danville, visited Mrs. Rosa Ann Pence Sunday.

Arrangements are being made to observe children services at the two churches here. The Reformed church will hold their services on the evening of Sunday, June 5, and the Christian church on June 12.

Miss Vern Roush, of Hillsboro, was the guest of relatives here from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. W. M. Sanderson and granddaughter spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Sardinia.

Rev. H. J. Christman, of Dayton, will preach at the Reformed church here on Sunday morning.

Gall Davidson visited his grandparents, Thomas Newton and wife, in Hillsboro, last week.

Last Monday morning ten chair wagons left our village, taking twenty-two of our citizens. They will canvass for the Hillsboro Chair Co. through Northern Ohio and Indiana during the summer season.

Mack Groves and family, of Boston, and Carl Hixson and family were guests of Dan Henderson and wife Sunday.

Mrs. Philip Leininger, of Hillsboro, is spending the week with relatives here.

Walter Lemon and wife, of Hillsboro, C. C. Winkle and wife, Ed. Hopkins and wife, and Miss Chloa Stockwell were guests of Bruce Jones and family Sunday.

Tess—I broke my engagement with him because he wouldn't give up tobacco.

Jess—Then he is an old flame of yours?

Tess—Yes, and he's still smoking.—St. Louis Star.

RAINSBORO

May 23, 1910.

Mrs. Beekman, of New Fain, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Adams, the past week, returned home on Sunday.

John Davies, of New Vienna, was the guest of his parents here Saturday and Sunday.

Bert Cunningham, of Mannington W. Va., arrived here yesterday to join his wife and daughter, who are guests of J. E. Davies and wife.

Mrs. Jones and daughter, of Cynthia, were guests of Mrs. J. T. Roads last Thursday.

W. T. Dodge and two older children attended Commencement at Bainbridge last Friday night, where his daughter Daisy, was among the graduates.

George Free lost a horse last Friday evening, that had lived to the age of thirty two years.

Mrs. J. A. Beaver and two daughters were guests of friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Oleta Mercer, of New Vienna, was the guest of friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. O. A. Tudor, of Greenfield was called here Saturday night on professional business.

Mrs. Mary Wolfe and Misses Martha and Margery Rittenhouse visited friends at Bainbridge Friday and attended the commencement.

Rev. E. A. Huntington and wife left today for Clermont county and will be absent the greater part of the week.

Mrs. Dwight Cope of near Greenfield, was the guest of her parents, C. A. West and wife over Sunday.

The Dallas and Rainsboro kids teams enjoyed a game of base ball here on Saturday afternoon in which the latter was victorious.

Frank Adams and wife spent Sunday with relatives in Pike County.

Sim Shoemaker drove into town Saturday evening and hitched his horse to the rack. Shortly afterward some one discovered that the animal was sick and at once notified the owner, who secured a veterinary as soon as possible but to no avail as the horse died in a short time after his arrival.

Almond and Bryan Huntington are spending a few days at the country home of M. B. Park near New Petersburg.

J. A. Beaver and family spent Sunday with his brother, C. A. Beaver near Carmel.

W. C. Newell and wife and son, of Bainbridge, passed through here Sunday morning on their way to spend the day with friends in the vicinity of Millwood.

Halley's comet has attracted a great deal of attention here the past week.

The Rainsboro boys went to Bainbridge to play ball and the score was 13 to 1 in favor of Rainsboro.

W. J. Redkey left this morning for a two days trip to Cincinnati on business.

Sam Borst was the guest of friends in Ross county last Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, of Hillsboro and Mrs. Warren Harper and two little daughters, of good hope, are guests of Mrs. J. B. Davies since Friday.

J. T. Roads and family, W. J. Redkey, and wife, Henry Mason and family, Vernon Holmes and wife Mrs. Louisa Baker and John Mason and family were among those from this place who attended the surprise at Paint on Sunday given in honor of Mrs. George Hulitt.

Quarterly meeting will be held in the M. E. church here on Saturday and Sunday of next week.

The Ladies Aid Society are arranging to give an ice cream supper on the night of June 11.

DODSONVILLE

May 23, 1910.

Mrs. Fanny Chaney and her two children May and Fern, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Gordy Hawthorne.

Miss Leona Stroup, spent last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Ellis, at Cincinnati.

Dexter Carpenter and wife and son Dexter, of Hollowtown, spent Wednesday with J. M. Roads and family.

Charley Stroup and family, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Stroup.

Henry Miller and sister, Ella, called on Oliver Daggy and family Sunday.

Miss Rosa Stroup spent Sunday with Nina McKinney.

The guests at the home of Wm. Keeler Sunday were J. M. Roscoe and family, Joe Briggs and family, Charles Wolfrom and wife, Walter Carrol and wife, and daughter Dorris—Mrs. Wm. Stoup and son, Harry, Emma Shaffer, and Mrs. Mary Shoemaker.

Ozro Stroup and wife and daughter, Leona, spent Sunday with Charley Stubbs and family.

Alfred Moon, of Westboro and Lenna Brude, of near here, were quietly married Thursday.

LYNCHBURG.

May 23, 1910.

Mrs. Frank Lacy, of Blanchester, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. S. Puckett, part of last week.

J. B. Kleckner and son left Sunday for a week's visit with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Packham, at Springfield.

Miss Nora Reeves spent Monday in Cincinnati.

Lorain Troutwine and wife, of Weertown, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bird, Wednesday.

The receipts from the market held by the second division of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church Saturday were $8.50.

Rev. J. D. Darling delivered the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening.

Mrs. Pat McCabes spent a few days of last week in Cincinnati.

Mrs. W. T. Montgomery was shopping in Hillsboro Monday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church will hold a general market Saturday, May 28, at Troth's office.

Bert Thornburg and family spent Sunday with D. S. Simkins and family.

Miss Fay Gordon, of Greenfield, spent Sunday with Miss Stella Troth.

Mrs. Earl Fields and family left Monday for a few days visit with her father, George Sanderson, who is seriously ill at his home at Middletown.

Miss Edna Easter, of Hillsboro, spent Sunday with Albert Felke and family.

Among those who spent Saturday in Hillsboro were Misses Jessie Murphy, Madelon Montgomery, Mrs. U. G. Pence and H. B. Gallett and son, Clifford.

The superintendent, teachers and seniors of the Lynchburg High School were entertained by the Juniors on last Tuesday evening at the home of Hazel Gallett.

Frank Barker and Mrs. Mel King, of Rector, Kan., are visiting Mrs. Wm. Brown.

Miss Lillie Faris, of Cincinnati, spent Wednesday and Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Naomi Earls.

L. L. Faris left Tuesday afternoon for Washington D. C., where he will attend the National Sunday School Convention.

Mrs. Ernest Duminil and two daughters, Marjorie and Mildred, left Friday for an extended visit in Cincinnati.

Mr. Duminil spent Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Cinnie Miller spent Monday with Mrs. John Kerr and family at Washington C. H.

William Stautner and family were guests at the Pulse home Sunday.

J. L. DeLaney and daughter, Miss Nelle, spent Monday and Tuesday in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Lola Stanley, of Hillsboro, spent the first of the week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Murphy.

The program for the commencement to be rendered in the M. E. Church Friday evening, May 27, is as follows: March—Mrs. V. E. Duncanson.

Invocation—Rev. A. J. Bachman.

Music—Orchestra.

Oration—"Not How Much but How Well"—Lottie F. Archer.

Music—Orchestra.

Oration—"Woman"—Roy O. Simkins.

Music—Orchestra.

Oration—"Failures as Stepping Stones to Success"—Joseph Smith.

Music—Orchestra.

Oration—"A Dream of the Future"—Stella Brewer.

Music—Orchestra.

Class Address—"Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother"—Hon. A. P. Sandles.

Music—Orchestra.

Presentation of Diplomas—Rev. W. S. Gray.

Music—Orchestra.

Benediction—Rev. George Trostle.

The music will be furnished by the Lynchburg orchestra.

ELMVILLE.

May 23, 1910.

Jack Butler and family and Dr. McNelly's children of London, dined with J. M. Setty and wife Sunday.

Lester Beckman and wife are visiting relatives at Middletown.

Robert Countryman and family visited his parents Saturday and Sunday.

W. E. Parker and Homer Hammond went to Washington C. H. last week, where they purchased four pure bred Duroc hogs.

J. M. Hammond visited S. R. Wylie and wife Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Hottinger and brother, of Bell, visited Jack Setty and wife Saturday and Sunday.

George Gall and family and Mrs. Margaret Gall and children visited J. W. Hammond and family Sunday.

Mrs. S. A. Ware and children visited her mother Sunday.

J. W. Hammond is erecting a new Tobacco barn.

Hat Flowers, 10 cents a bunch, at Stabler's.

BUFORD.

May 23, 1910.

Mrs. H. M. Brown, of Hillsboro, attended services at the M. E. Church Sunday.

Born, Monday, May 16, to Dane Crawford and wife, a daughter.

Joseph Hiron, formerly a resident of this place, is visiting his friends and relatives here.

A. M. Faris and wife and Henry Stewart and family were guests of J. A. Mabin and wife Sunday.

Mesdames Lyda and Mollie Barker, of Dodsonville, visited Mrs. S. S. Moler Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Irwin is visiting her children at Williamsburg for a few weeks.

S. A. Lyons is sick.

Samuel Page moved Saturday to Mack Brown's farm. Eli Diskette intends moving to Buford this week to go in business with his son, Alvia.

William Workman and wife, of Union, called on Denver Puckett and wife Sunday.

Tuesday evening the heavy rains did not hinder a number of ladies from calling on Mrs. A. A. Davis, in honor of her birthday, where a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Arthur Riding, of Portsmouth, wishes to thank her many Buford friends for their generous post card shower in remembrance of his thirty-second birthday.

BELL.

May 23, 1910.

Rev. DeLapp, of Sugartree Ridge, preached a very able sermon to a large congregation here Sunday.

Miss Maggie Calvert, who is night operator for the Bell telephone company at Hillsboro, is at home on a few weeks vacation.

T. C. McGuire, who has been sick for the past two weeks, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Mabel Shannon, of Hillsboro, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Joe Swanger.

Bartholom Roberts, who is attending school at West Union, spent Sunday with the home folks.

There will be an ice cream supper here Saturday, June 4.

Miss LeVer entertained on last Thursday in honor of Miss Marie Lipfert, of Walton, Ind. Those present were Misses Mary Milligan, Ethel Jamison, Nannie Tannehill, Ada Jamison and Faye Cummings and sister, Gladys, of Marshall.

Frank and Alonzo Swanger spent Sunday with F. J. Kelly at Hillsboro.

Mr. Gotherman and wife dined Sunday with Cliff Calvert.

Charles Lyons and wife and Thos. Fulton and wife dined Sunday with W. S. Haigh and family.

George Hottinger and sister, Myrtle, spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends at Elmville.

Edgar Roberts and wife, of Hillsboro, dined Sunday with Steward Hamilton.

Dave Roberts and sister, Lizzie, spent Sunday with their brother, Dr. Roberts.

Mrs. Stella Butler, of Huntington, Tenn., was called here by the death of her sister, Mrs. Albert Siders.

Jim Elgin, of Eureka, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Russell Frazier.

Harrison Mullenix, who is attending school at West Union, spent from Friday until Monday with home folks.

The two-year-old daughter of Will Noland had the misfortune of falling and cutting such a wound Monday that a few stitches had to be taken.

Miss Ethel Storer, of Hillsboro, is spending a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Sam Storer, of Hillsboro, spent Sunday with her parents, Steward Hamilton and wife.

Mrs. Albert Siders, after a few weeks illness, died Friday morning, aged 36 years, 6 months and 25 days. The funeral services were held at Mt. Zion Sunday morning, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Foust, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Belfast cemetery, followed by a large concourse of sympathizing friends and relatives.

Currant Tea Cakes.

Cream one fourth of a cupful of butter and add gradually while beating constantly, on third of a cupful of sugar; then add one egg well beaten. Mix and sift two and one third cupfuls of flour, one half teaspoonful of salt, and four teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Add to first mixture alternately with one cupful of milk; then stir in two thirds of a cupful of fresh currants mixed with one third of a cupful of flour. Bake in buttered individual tins in a moderate oven.—From Woman's Home Companion for June.

"Nurse (running in excitedly)—Madam, the baby has just fallen out of the nursery window.

Stylish Mother—Horrors, and the new cement walk hasn't had time enough to dry out yet either!—St. Louis Star.

SHARPSVILLE

May 23, 1910.

Grant Plummer and family of Celina, Kansas, spent Tuesday with Wm. Alexander.

Thomas Achor and family spent Sunday with the former's brother, Ed, at Farmer Station.

Dave Gilliland and family were the guests of Bert Gilliland at New Vienna Sunday.

Roy Crosley, of Blanchester, spent part of last week at the home of Wm. Alexander.

James Bird and family were the guests of B. F. Lourman Sunday. Also Wm. Alexander and wife, Mrs. Mary Pendall, Pearl and Lella Carpenter and Mrs. Clara McDaniel and Lawrence Chaney, were callers Sunday afternoon.

C. E. Chaney and family spent Sunday with T. J. Lourman.

Cliff Scott and family were entertained by John Gilliland and wife Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Chaney and children called on Mrs. Annie Lourman Friday afternoon.

Ray Rankin and wife and Emma, Maggie, Eva, and Robert Rankin spent Sunday with Wesley Vanpelit at Glady.

Mrs. Annie Lowman and children took dinner with Isaac Jones Saturday.

Wm. Noble and family were the guests of Joe Vanpelit Friday.

James Bird and family spent Thursday with M. N. Rankins, who is ill.

Mrs. Pearl Sharp was the guest of Frank Sharp Sunday.

PAINT.

May 23, 1910.

Over one hundred and twenty-five relatives and friends assembled at the home of Mrs. George Hulitt Sunday morning, May 22, to celebrate her birthday. They came prepared to celebrate in a festive way, and a sumptuous dinner, served in picnic style on the lawn, was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Hulitt is looking pleasantly forward to next year, as she anticipates celebrating her golden wedding. Having lived here so many years she has endeared herself to her many acquaintances by her kindness and sunny disposition. May she live to a "green old age" and have many happy birthdays is the wish of the writer. Mrs. Hulitt was the recipient of one hundred and sixty-five birthday cards.

Misses Leona Holmes, Florence DeHass and Etta Holmes were shopping in Chillicothe, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Free, of Greenfield, enjoyed the birthday dinner Sunday. They returned home in the evening and were accompanied by their little nephew, Raymond Hope, who will make them a visit.

Harry Richards and W. W. Ruble and family, of Hillsboro, were among Mrs. Hulitt's guests Sunday.

James Hamilton and sister, Miss Janet, of Dallas, attended league at The Point Sunday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Morgan and daughter, Mrs. Ida, are visiting here.

Oce Hutt spent several days at home this week.

Quite a number from here attended commencement exercises at Bainbridge Friday night. Each speaker did very well, seeming to put their personality in all they said and their delivery was excellent, being animated and persuasive. All were delighted with the beautiful music rendered. The address by Prof. Wilson, of Athens, delivered in a most pleasing manner, was of a high order. His ideas of progress, success and character building were well brought out. Above all else he admonished those just starting in life's field of action to keep clean hands and pure life. All felt when he had finished that they had been entertained in the full sense of the word and had caught the inspiration to go onward and upward.

Wm. Hope lost a valuable colt Sunday.

Miss Mary Hutt returns thanks to those who added pleasure to her birthday by over one hundred cards breathing best wishes for the future and home pleasant memories of the past. She is very proud of the basket of beautiful flowers gathered with loving hands which were given her and grateful to others for the well-selected and useful articles sent.

Mrs. Preston Gullet was made quite happy by a shower of cards on her birthday. The members of the G. A. R. of Kentucky and their families and many of her old neighbors did not forget that she was "the daughter of their regiment," altho living in the Buckeye State.

Sheriff Sale.

Good farm of 43 1/2 acres, situated 4 miles from Hillsboro on the Belfast pike, good two story six room house, now vacant, hardwood staircase and floors, cistern, cellar, barn 30 x 40 and other out buildings, 2 acres in orchard, good spring and never failing water in every field, will be sold at the Court House in Hillsboro on June 14 at 1 p. m. This is a great bargain at $2,000. Land adjoining can be bought.

Peoples' Column*FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A number of good farms. WADE TURNER.

FOR SALE—Black Hill Locust Posts. J. E. McDermott, Hillsboro, or Craig Eubanks 2 miles south of Carmel.

MISCELLANEOUS.

See T. B. Custer's fine display of Clocks and Watches.

Go to the Star Restaurant for the best bread and cakes.

All kinds of repair work at Shaw's Shoe Shop on S. High street.